NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b)
OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $39 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total fee $299)

1. Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a “means test” designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

2. Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

3. The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

4. Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $39 administrative fee: Total fee $274)

1. Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

2. Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

3. After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1000 filing fee, $39 administrative fee: Total fee $1039)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $39 administrative fee: Total fee $239)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

To indicate payments, transfers and the like to minor children, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. §112 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

EXHIBIT D - INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR'S STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENT

Warning: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and you file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop creditors' collection activities.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

1. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, and I have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.

2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. You must file a copy of a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to you and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency no later than 15 days after your bankruptcy case is filed.

3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the five days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Summarize exigent circumstances here.]

If your certification is satisfactory to the court, you must still obtain the credit counseling briefing within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the counseling, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

4. I am not required to receive a credit counseling briefing because of: [Check the applicable statement.] [Must be accompanied by a motion for determination by the court.]

Incapacity. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as impaired by reason of mental illness or mental deficiency so as to be incapable of realizing and making rational decisions with respect to financial responsibilities.);

Disability. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as physically impaired to the extent of being unable, after reasonable effort, to participate in a credit counseling briefing in person, by telephone, or through the Internet.);

Active military duty in a military combat zone.

5. The United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator has determined that the credit counseling requirement of 11 U.S.C. § 109(h) does not apply in this district.

I certify under penalty of perjury that the information provided above is true and correct.

FEDERAL RETURN SUBMITTED: February 06, 2008 07:19 PM PST
FEDERAL RETURN ACCEPTANCE DATE: 02/06/2008

The Intuit Electronic Postmark shows the date and time Intuit received your federal tax return. The Intuit Electronic Postmark documents the filing date of your income tax return, and the electronic postmark information should be kept on file with your tax return and other tax-related documentation.

There are two important aspects of the Intuit Electronic Postmark:

1. THE INTUIT ELECTRONIC POSTMARK.

The electronic postmark shows the date and time Intuit received the federal return, and is deemed the filing date if the date of the electronic postmark is on or before the date prescribed for filing of the federal individual income tax return.

TIMELY FILING:

For your federal return to be considered filed on time, your return must be postmarked on or before midnight April 15, 2008. Intuit's electronic postmark is issued in the Pacific Time (PT) zone. If you are not filing in the PT zone, you will need to add or subtract hours from the Intuit Electronic Postmark time to determine your local postmark time. For example, if you are filing in the Eastern Time (ET) zone and you electronically file your return at 9 AM on April 15, 2008, your Intuit electronic postmark will indicate April 15, 2008, 6 AM. If your federal tax return is rejected, the IRS still considers it filed on time if the electronic postmark is on or before April 15, 2008, and a corrected return is submitted and accepted before April 20, 2008. If your return is submitted after April 20, 2008, a new time stamp is issued to reflect that your return was submitted after the IRS deadline and, consequently, is no longer considered to have been filed on time.

If you request an automatic six-month extension, your return must be electronically postmarked by midnight October 15, 2008. If your federal tax return is rejected, the IRS will still consider it filed on time if the electronic postmark is on or before October 15, 2008, and the corrected return is submitted and accepted by October 20, 2008.

2. THE ACCEPTANCE DATE.

Once the IRS accepts the electronically filed return, the acceptance date will be provided by the Intuit Electronic Filing Center. This date is proof that the IRS accepted the electronically filed return.

6a  I consent that my refund be directly deposited as designated in the refund section of my 2007 federal income tax return (or Form 8888, if applicable). If I have filed a joint tax return, this is an irrevocable appointment of the other spouse as an agent to receive the refund.

b  I do not want direct deposit of my refund or I am not receiving a refund.

c  I authorize the U.S. Treasury and its designated Financial Agent to initiate an ACH electronic funds withdrawal entry to the financial institution account indicated in the tax preparation software for payment of my federal taxes owed on this tax return and/or a payment of estimated tax. I further understand that this authorization may apply to future federal tax payments that I direct to be debited through the Electronic Federal Tax Payment System (EFTPS). In order for me to initiate future payments, I request that the IRS send me a personal identification number (PIN) to access EFTPS. This authorization is to remain in full force and effect until I notify the U.S. Treasury Financial Agent to terminate the authorization. To receive a payment, I must contact the U.S. Treasury Financial Agent at 1-888-353-4537 no later than 2 business days prior to the payment (settlement) date. I also authorize the financial institutions involved in the processing of the electronic payment of taxes to receive confidential information necessary to answer inquiries and resolve issues related to the payment.

If I have filed a balance due tax return, I understand that if the IRS does not receive full and timely payment of my tax liability, I will remain liable for the tax liability and all applicable interest and penalties. If I have filed a joint federal and state tax return, and there is an error on my federal tax return, I understand my state tax return will be rejected.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have examined a copy of my electronic individual income tax return, and accompanying schedules and statements for the tax year ending December 31, 2007, and to the best of my knowledge and belief, it is true, correct, and complete. I further declare that the amounts in Part I above are the amounts shown on the copy of my electronic income tax return. 3. No Requirement To Have SBBT Process Your Refund In Order To File Electronically. You understand that SBBT charges a refund processing fee to deduct Intuit's fees from your refund. You further understand that your tax year 2007 federal income tax return can be filed electronically, and your IRS refund direct deposited, without using SBBT's refund processing service by, instead, paying the applicable TurboTax filing fees to Intuit by credit or debit card at the time you file your 2007 federal income tax return.

SBBT must receive an acknowledgement from the IRS that your return has been electronically filed and accepted for processing before the Deposit Account can be opened. You authorize SBBT to deduct processing and transmission of your tax return; and, (iii) amounts to pay for additional products and services purchased plus applicable taxes. You authorize SBBT to disburse the balance of the Deposit Account to you after making all authorized deductions or payments.

6. Acknowledgements. (a) You understand that (i) SBBT cannot guarantee the amount of your tax year 2007 federal income tax refund or the date it will be issued, and (ii) SBBT is not affiliated with the transmitter of the tax return (Intuit) and does not warrant the accuracy of the software used to prepare the tax return. 7. Truth in Savings Disclosure. The Deposit Account is being opened for the purpose of receiving your (both spouses if this is a jointly filed return) tax year 2007 federal tax refund. There is no cost to you for opening the Deposit Account. No other deposits may be made to the Deposit Account. No withdrawals will be allowed from the Deposit Account until all fees, charges, disbursements and payments authorized by this Agreement have been paid. No interest is payable on the deposit; thus, the annual percentage yield and interest rate are 0%. SINETRA L MALCOM

9. Electronic Fund Transfers: The Federal Electronic Fund Transfer Act provides you with certain rights and obligations regarding the funds transferred to or from the Deposit Account on time or in the correct amount according to this Agreement. SBBT will be liable for your losses or damages. There are some exceptions, however. SBBT will not be liable, for instance, if: through no fault of SBBT, you do not have enough available funds in the Deposit Account to make the transfer; circumstances beyond SBBT's control (such as fire, flood, water damage, power failure, strike, labor dispute, computer breakdown, civil unrest, governmental action, acts of terrorism, telephone line disruption or a natural disaster) delay the transfer despite reasonable precautions taken by SBBT; the funds in the Deposit Account are subject to legal process or SBBT has reason to believe the transaction may not be authorized by you. If you believe that there is an error or if you have a question about your Deposit Account, you will write to Santa Barbara Bank & Trust, P.O. Box 1030, Solana Beach, California 92075, or call SBBT at 818-717-7228, or communicate with it via the Internet by logging on to <http://cisc.sbbtrtal.com>, and provide SBBT with your name, a description of the explanation of the error, and the dollar amount of the suspected error or the transfer you are unsure about. SBBT will determine whether the error occurred within 10 business days after it hears from you and will correct any error promptly. SBBT will tell you the results within three business days after completing its investigation. If SBBT decides that there was no error, it will send you a written explanation. You may ask for copies of the documents that SBBT used in its investigation. SBBT's business days are Monday through Friday, excluding holidays.

10. Compensation. In addition to any fees paid directly by you to Intuit, SBBT will pay a portion of SBBT's refund processing fee to Intuit in consideration of and pursuant to their agreement relating to Intuit's provision of various programming, testing, data processing, transmission, systems maintenance, status reporting and other software, technical and communications service.

11. Governing Law. The enforcement and interpretation of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated herein shall be governed by the laws of the State of California applicable to contracts executed and to be performed entirely in the State of California by residents of the State of California, without regard to the conflicts of laws, and, to the extent applicable, by the laws of the United States of America, including the Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act.
